

Agents should be able to view and generate reports that show their downlines. They should be able to see sales, compensation %, and contact information.

